Senator E. S. Rigdon of Cambria and Mayor P. J. Dougherty of Monterey were in Carmel on Monday. The Senator, who is a candidate for re-election, unopposed, says he's trying to bring Carmel and Cambria closer together, meaning that he's endeavoring to hasten construction of the Carmel-San Simeon Highway.

Harrison Godwin, nephew of Mrs. A. D. Signor, is here from Canada, and will be joined shortly by his mother and brother.

Passage of Amendment No. 9 will vest power in the State to adjust up or down the interest rate on unsold State highway bonds so as to meet the market fluctuations at times when money is required for construction work.

Post-cards of Highlands. Carmel News Co.

Mrs. J. E. White and Mrs. H. D. J. Osborn of Montclair, N. J., are here for the winter. They have the Leonard cottage, overlooking Carmel Bay.

Mrs. S. P. Wilson, who has been visiting Mrs. Allen McDonald here for the past month, is leaving this week for Pasadena, where she will remain a while before returning to her home in Detroit.

This evening at 8 o'clock there will be a community reception at the Carmel Church (Lincoln st.) to the new pastor, Rev. Fred Sheldon and Mrs. Sheldon. Everyone is invited to attend and give them cordial greeting, either as members and attendants or as neighbors and friends.

Vote "Yes" on Amendment No. 12. It assures to our glorious and growing State University adequate funds for all purposes and all times. It provides that four cents of each $1. of State taxes collected be apportioned to the University.

A Laugh to Close the Old Year and Begin the New

The annual mid-winter production of the Arts and Crafts Club this season will be H. A. de Souchet's celebrated farce, "The Man From Mexico," in which Willie Collier appeared more than two decades ago, and which has been revived many times since, also with great success.

This play is regarded as one of the funniest farces produced in this country, and Charles Frohman considered it the ideal farce-comedy. It has been played all over the world, and has probably been responsible for more laughs than any farce written since "Charley's Aunt."

The play will be given at Arts and Crafts Hall with an all-Carmel cast, under the direction of John Northern Hilliard, on the nights of December 31 and January 1.

The Next President.

As certain as anything can be, in this world, is the election of Senator Harding.

To readers of this newspaper, the many family groups to which it comes a regular welcome visitor, Senator Harding's face shines as that of a friend.

Senator Harding, your next President, is your kind of man. You see him, hear a few words, and you know it.

He was born in a small town, has lived there all his life, lives there now, and will live there again when he leaves the White House with his work for the country done.

He lives as you live, simply, in the old fashioned American way.

Millions of men, believing in this country, devoted to its government, SATISFIED with the UNITED STATES, believe that the United States is able to deal with its own problems, and settle its own questions free from outside

It is his ambition to be known as a good American, a faithful servant of those that trust him.

National politics are discussed this year less than at any election since the republic was founded. Why? Because men do not discuss, to any great extent, that which is DEFINITELY SETTLED.

But it is important that demonstration of the popular will should be of the most overwhelming kind. Therefore the good citizen will do what he can to increase the vote for Harding, should there be any doubtful votes within reach of his voice.

But if you do find one, show him or her this picture of the next President. And express in your own way the reasons that inspire you to approve and vote for him.

What is Senator Harding's outlook upon life? It is YOUR OWN.

The duty of the American, whether he be President or simple citizen, is not complicated in Mr. Harding's mind. He says:

President or simple citizen, is not complicated in Mr. Harding's mind. He says:

"As I said at the outset, government is a very simple thing; government is only the regulation of our relationships to one another. The government's first task is the protection of the minority against autocracy, or the domination of the majority that sometimes forgets the rights of the minority."

"I am preaching the gospel of popular representative government in the United States, a government that does not know any class anywhere in all this Republic."

Women Voting.

Women especially have reason to congratulate themselves on the fact that Senator Harding will be the next President and that the change in the national administration is to be complete.

Their sons are taken in war. Their husbands and fathers are taxed to pay for war. They spend the lonely hours of dreadful anxiety, while the son is away.

They, above all, are interested in having for President such a man as Senator Harding.

He does not believe that foreign powers should be allowed to conscript American boys for war beyond the seas.

He does not believe that a Foreign Council should send to America for men and money to settle wars not of our making.

Senator Harding does not believe that this country should be taxed to finance the ambitions or the land greed of foreign nations, and as he believes, so the earnest men and women of this country believe.

When you cast your vote for Senator Harding, you will vote for YOUR KIND OF MAN, the intelligent, straightforward, unpretentious American citizen. President Harding will be an American President, not an international President.

His Ambition.

Senator Harding has no ambition to be called a political superman, or RULER of America.

Like Senator Harding, both COOLIDGE and SHORTRIDGE came from the soil—the one from New England and the other from the West. Both have carried with them into public careers the homely virtues of life as they apply both to the individual and community contentment.

SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE, as farmer, blacksmith, teacher, lawyer has succeeded for the reason that no faults of training or thinking have kept him from the forward-looking path of the truly sincere and big American.

SHORTRIDGE knows California and her problems. He knows the Nation's problems in this time of war's reconstruction.

SHORTRIDGE will lose no time in applying himself in the Senate to these problems. He will support Harding and Harding will support Shortridge and California.

HARDING-COOLIDGE-SHORTRIDGE—Three men of today most like most other Americans. They are California's kind of men—they are America's kind of men.

We must have a complete change in the Administration at Washington!

ELECT HARDING—COOLIDGE—SHORTRIDGE

"Thine Is the Glory!"

This painting, which hangs in National Headquarters of the American Red Cross, Washington, depicts the homage of America's fighting men to American womanhood as mobilized for service in the World War by this organization. It is the collaborative, scientific and art creation of Major Joseph Gray Kitchell, late of the General Staff, U. S. A., and F. Luis Mora, of the New York School of Art. The face of the central figure is a composite of the features of a thousand Red Cross workers selected for the purpose.

Cox Wiggles and Wobbles.

BY SCOTT C. BONE.

Candidate Cox, recklessly charging that the Republican party had set out to corrupt the electorate by raising a fund of $15,000,000 with which to "buy the presidency," has been utterly confuted by the facts.

Instead, it has been completely established that the goal fixed by Chairman Hays was only one-fifth that amount, or $3,000,000, with contributions rigidly limited to $1,000, and that never before has a campaign fund been so free from the taint of corporate, sinister or sordid influences.

That an overtaxed, overburdened and weary country, paying the cost of incompetence, incapacity and extravagance in governmental affairs and maladministration at Washington, would welcome relief at any price legitimately expended may be taken for granted.

But only in the wild dreams of Candidate Cox—who stands committed to Wilsonism and the wastefulness of Wilsonism, with everything that Wilsonism typifies and implies—has any such expenditure as Candidate Cox charged ever been remotely conceived or for a moment contemplated.

Even his foremost newspaper champions—organs of the international banking crowd which favor his candidacy because, with equal rashness, he promises that if elected he will go into the Wilson League of Nations—editorially admit that his slush fund charges have proven groundless.

Candidate Cox's credibility as a witness has similarly been damaged by the wet and dry issue confronting him.

To the indisputable proof that the New Jersey Liquor Dealers' Association is appealing for funds to elect him as a "pronounced wet" he replies that the liquor interests of Ohio never contributed to any of his campaigns.

Yet a sworn statement, signed by the secretary of the Ohio Liquor Dealers' Association and on file in the secretary of state's office, shows that that organization contributed a substantial sum out of its treasury to the Cox campaign of 1916.

And in the face of it all, having withheld for months, in silence, William Jennings Bryan's denunciation of him as a "wet" and unfit to run for president, Candidate Cox, with characteristic audacity, now assures a North Dakota crowd that "I have always voted dry!"

Imagine Boss Murphy, Boss Taggart, Boss Brennan and that Youngstown Apostle of Light and Uplift, Ed Moore, contriving the nomination at San Francisco of a candidate who had "always voted dry!" Imagine it, if you can!

Shade of John Barleycorn! What a spectacle is presented in American politics!

SINGLE TAX OPPOSITION IS STRONG

State-wide Campaign Is Headed by Two Big Organizations.

Two powerful organizations of business men, and business women, professional men and women, members of commercial and civic bodies, and clubs with members of both sexes, all voters in California, are making a state-wide campaign, the Anti-Single Tax Association, north of the Tehachapi, and the People's Anti-Single Tax League, south of the Tehachapi, in opposition to the single tax movement, which is centered in California this year.

The single tax advocates have placed Amendment Number 20 on the ballot at the coming November election, and are making a vigorous fight for its adoption. It will be entitled "Land Values Taxation," and it is the most radical measure the single taxers have yet advocated in any part of the United States.

The single tax advocates have more terrible than any ever presented by the single taxers, or any other of the socialistically inclined agitators of the United States. So extreme is it in its tendency that it has aroused the opposition of every one of the business interests of the state, the property owners and the laboring people alike. The farmers are up in arms against it.

Dr. Johnson, whose name stands for much in the work of social betterment says of the present attempt:

"I feel it a duty I owe to the people of California, to make the greatest attempt possible to warn every one of them of the dangers of this single tax iniquity. So deeply interested did I become in this matter after the result of the election two years ago was announced, and when it became known that the single taxers were planning another attempt this year, that I took the time to go to British Columbia, accompanied by John P. Steele, secretary of the People's Anti-Single Tax League, and remained there for several weeks, getting full and correct information regarding the effects of the operation of single tax methods of taxation in the cities of that province of Canada.

"I found that in a large majority of the cities of British Columbia, including the cities of Vancouver and Victoria, single tax had been given a thorough trial, to the great sorrow of all of those who were instrumental in securing its adoption in those municipalities.

"My investigations, and those of Mr. Steele, proved conclusively that in every instance where single tax was adopted by a municipality in British Columbia disaster to that community, and absolute financial ruin followed in its wake.

"The dire iniquities of the single tax struck me so forcibly during my stay in British Columbia that immediately after my return to California, noting that the single taxers were again going to make a further attempt to force their fanatical theory on this prosperous state, I began to advocate the use of some measure that will have the effect of stopping the single tax agitation in California once and for all.

"To this end the Anti-Single Tax organizations finally decided to place upon the ballot an amendment, which is Number Four, which will compel any person or set of persons desiring to enact by initiative any measure in California affecting taxation or assessment to secure 25 per cent of the signatures of the voters at the preceding gubernatorial election instead of 8 per cent, as at present.

"The organizations believe that Amendment Number 4, if adopted, will prove an effectual bar to the single tax menace in California.

"We are therefore asking all those who are alive to the danger that confronts us to vote for Amendment Number 4, as well as against Amendment Number 20, the single tax iniquity.

Ex-President Cal. Conference of Social Agencies.

Dr. Milbank Johnson, B.S., M.D., L.L.D., of Los Angeles, who has been one of the most active of the opponents of single tax in California, points out that the particular wording makes this the most radical of all the amendments the single taxers have put up to voters anywhere, going far beyond even Henry George's theory of taxation, and presenting to the people of the State of California a menace

103 YEARS YOUNG; HE'S FOR HARDING

"If I should live to be another 100 years old I certainly would never vote for a member of the Democratic party for President or any other national office."

So declares "Grandpa" Albert Vogel, 103 years young, of Jeannette, Pa., who cast his first vote in a presidential election for Polk, voted for Abraham Lincoln and has voted the Republican ticket ever since. Next month he will vote for Harding and Coolidge.

"Tell the country I am for Harding and Coolidge and America first," says Mr. Vogel. "I want no Wilson League of Nations. President Wilson's autocracy and the wastefulness of those he gathered about him as his official family was to be expected. It has been a Democratic trait for years."

"Grandpa" Vogel takes a daily constitutional over streets near his home in Jeannette. Occasionally he preaches a sermon from one of the Western Pennsylvania churches with old time vigor. He started life as an assistant lamplighter in the Capitol grounds at Washington when he was fifteen years old. He often ran errands for members of Congress and can vividly recall the eloquence of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster and other famous statesmen of that period. He saw Andrew Jackson inaugurated in 1832. Later he became a Methodist minister.

Stockings for Christmas Only.

The Christmas stocking as generally known is one taken from the bureau supply for daily wear. In certain parts of the country, however, the Christmas stocking is never in use except to be "hung from the chimney with care." The New England stocking of this kind is usually long in the leg and knitted from woolen yarn. There are stockings on Cape Cod which have been used by four generations of children. Once emptied of their treasure on Christmas morning they are rolled up and marked and laid away for the next year's festivities.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

OUR NATIONAL CAPITOL.

IT IS but fitting that America—the greatest nation in all the world—should have the finest capitol building on earth. The architectural beauty of our national capitol building at Washington is most impressive and, for capitol purposes, it is said to surpass every other building in the world.

The base of this immense, symmetrically shaped and imposing edifice rests on a level plateau, at an elevation of 97 feet above the historic Potomac river. The building faces the east and is about one mile distant from the White House. The corner stone of the original structure, which comprises the central portion of the present building and is of Virginia sandstone, was laid by President Washington on September 18, 1793—125 years ago. Later, when it became necessary to enlarge the building, two additions or wings, of Massachusetts marble, were added. President Fillmore laid the corner stone; Daniel Webster was the orator. These wings were burned by the British in 1814, but were restored. The original building was completed in 1827.

The present structure is 751 feet long and 350 wide. It covers three and one-half acres. The central portion is surmounted by one of the most graceful, pleasingly shaped and massive domes in the world. This dome is 287 feet high. It was completed in 1865. It weighs more than 8,000,000 pounds and is topped by a statue of Freedom almost 20 feet high.

The total value of the building and grounds is estimated at $25,400,000.

OLD AND NEW COX SLOGANS.

Washington. — The following interesting interview with Governor James M. Cox of Ohio was published in the hotel column of the Washington Post four years ago—viz, on July 29, 1916:

"Ohio is not the only state where the people are shouting the praises of the President for having preserved peace in the United States. Our honor has remained unsullied. The slogan 'He Kept Us Out of War' will be the most effective argument the Democrats can use in the campaign. Americanism has been pre-empted by the President, and every other problem of national import has been met squarely and satisfactorily."

This tends to show the caliber of Governor Cox. With him it is anything to win, any sort of a catch phrase, slogan or anything to deceive or fool the people.

HARDING TO THE FARMERS.

Senator Harding's speech to the farmers of the country, delivered at the Minnesota State Fair, is commendable not only for the subject matter and the constructive statesmanship which it contains, but for the calm and dignified tone which prevails throughout the entire address. Nothing could more thoroughly impress intelligent people with the difference in the senator and his opponent and their qualifications for the presidency than Senator Harding's comprehensive discussion of the agricultural problems of the nation and the solution which must be applied to them and the political harangue delivered at the same place by Governor Cox.—Sioux City (Ia.) NURSING SERVICE IS RAPIDLY EXPANDING

This American Red Cross Work
Flourishing in Small Towns
Throughout Country.

More than 37,000 graduate nurses have been enrolled in the American Red Cross to date and its department of nursing is daily increasing this enrollment.

The department of nursing has been authorized to maintain an adequate reserve of nurses for the army and navy. It will continue to supply the needs of the United States Public Health Service to which it has assigned more than 1,000 nurses in the last year.

It will assist in establishing proper nursing service in foreign countries where the American Red Cross has organized hospitals, dispensaries and schools for nurses. Courses in home hygiene and care of the sick have been started for thousands of women who have never received any education in this direction. Rural nursing which was in its infancy a short while ago has been put ahead at least a decade through the work of the department of nursing and local Red Cross chapters.

Public health nursing has been extended to many rural communities and now flourishes actively in hundreds of small towns and counties. Nearly a thousand efficient nurses have already been assigned to this kind of work.

The department of nursing is uniting with other organizations in a year's campaign in recruiting nurses for training schools, in educating the general public as to standards of nursing education and in showing communities their responsibility toward schools of nursing. It will endeavor to meet all these needs as well as to continue the enrollment of dietitians who will be utilized as instructors in home dietetics, in developing nutritional clinics, and in supplying dietitians for the United States Public Health Service and the civilian hospitals.

The Nursing Service will continue to offer to women and young girls the opportunity of securing instruction in home hygiene and care of the sick in every community in the country. This instruction has not only laid the foundation for public health but in some places has given impetus to the establishment of hospitals and community school houses.

"As a community profits by the work of the nurse," says Miss Clara D. Noyes, director of the department of nursing, "it is logical that the community should be aroused to its responsibility. The American Red Cross stands ready to help in a general campaign of recruiting and must have the support, sympathy and understanding of the medical profession as well as the intelligent co-operation of the people at large."
